Secretary Report

- Updates: None

Treasurer Report:

- Kurt Bauer reported that we must be registered every Dec 31st to maintain exempt status as a non-profit organization. This was not up to date so Kurt completed the process. He made a note in the book.
- Money is due to girls tennis.
- 3 businesses still owe money for advertisements. All have been called upon including Hudys, UPS and Theresa (Insurance Agency)
- One more payment is due to the skills coach.
- A specific, maximum amount of money has been allocated for the senior banquet. The banquet is for each player + 2 for Varsity, JV and sophomore. Tuch to work with Hagers on details and to let us know what the dollar amount will be for additional guests. It should also include the managers.

- +2 was determined instead of 2 parents because not all players have 2 parents attending. It will be 2 guests will be paid for.
- Future expenses for next year will be basketballs.
- Possible increased coaching support.

Coach Mark Tuhscherer Not present: Hoelz gave report for Tuch:

- Tuch is at a meeting tonight.
- We were placed in # 2 seed.
- We play Spring Lake Park Friday night 7pm at CPHS
- A Champlin Park Rebels player was named to MN Basketball Coach's Association All Star Game. Booster is asked if they would sponsor the player for this event. 325$ There is a precedence of sponsoring all kids recently for this event. i.e. Scott Thiesen, Omeka Okafor.
- Board voted and approved to sponsor. Kurt to send a check to Tuch.
- Most likely date for banquet 4/18/10. Not confirmed yet. It's a Sunday eve to make less scheduling conflicts.
- Tuch to call Hagers for details as soon as it is confirmed. A letter or flyer will be done to notify players and parents of the details.
- Tuch and team to pick menu items as before.
- Similar set up expected.

Fundraising:

- As per above only 3 outstanding accounts owed to booster club in regards to fundraising.

OLD business:

- Website is still not updated. Password information given to Brent B. and to Jeff P. to start updating. They will be contacted again to go ahead and start taking over.
- Recommended 2 days per week it should be updated to keep current.
- Conference brackets should be added.
- Jill Zimmermann and Steve Walker commented on how good all of the activities went this year.
